Vendor Setup Commencement: July 22, 2020, at 10:00 a.m. [Wednesday]

Vendors: There will be a secured area to which you may send merchandise prior to the convention. You will be informed of the mailing address in your vendor confirmation letter. Vendors will be provided with a six-foot table and two chairs. Name tags will be placed on tables in the vendor area; they may not be moved. If you would like to be placed next to someone specific, please let us know. We will strive to accommodate your requests.

You may bring your own booth, if applicable, with an additional $35 charge, as it will require special placement and accommodations. The size of the booth must be reasonable. Booth specifications must be cleared by the World Flute Society.

Vendor's fees are not transferable. Only the business owners on the submitted paperwork are permitted behind the booth or table to transact business for their own merchandise. It is understood that some retailers/vendors carry products made by others, which is absolutely acceptable. Setting up a portion of a booth to sell goods for another flute maker or retailer as a favor is not acceptable. Booth space may not be shared in any way, shape, or form. Performing artists and friends are welcome behind the vendor booths to promote merchandise and to chat. Booth space operational times will be strictly adhered to for safety and security of property. Vendors may sell merchandise after the evening concerts, although no playing of instruments, loud noises, or talking above a whisper may take place in the vendor area while concerts are in progress because the vendor area is located immediately outside of the performance halls. All vendors must have their merchandise broken down and stored by 10:45 p.m. each evening. For convenience, there will be a locked room where vendors may store merchandise each evening. No banners, lighting, or any other appliances shall infringe on other spaces or vendors. No booth sound systems or special lighting effects shall be audible/visible 5 feet from any individual space.

There is no private selling or walk-on vendors at the World Flute Society convention. All vendors must be pre-registered in order to sell at the convention. The World Flute Society reserves the right to refuse a vendor application. If an application is refused, the application fee will be returned.

The World Flute Society and the university are not responsible for stolen merchandise if the booth is left unmanned. Please have someone watch your booth, if you must leave. Society staff can assist you, if you do not have another individual with you. Please ask in advance of your need. We are happy to help where needed.

Call for Raffle Items: The World Flute Society has a raffle to conclude the event. We would greatly appreciate donations for this event, as it generates funds to help pay for the venue and miscellaneous expenses. Monetary donations are also greatly appreciated.
